Dear Istinye University Family,

Welcome to the 3rd volume of Istinye University Library Bulletin.

We have come to the end of a busy academic year at Istinye University. We have completed our preparations for the final exams to be held between 06-15 June 2022. I wish all our students success in their final exams.

When you visit Topkapı Central Library and Vadi Campus Library, we recommend you to stop by the new arrivals shelf. You can examine the printed books that are quickly added to the ISU Library collection on the new arrivals shelf and borrow them within the framework of the rules.

Professionally, we left behind a busy and enjoyable month for us. We wanted to share with you the activities we carried out during the month of May. We also hope you enjoy the librarian suggestions section with the author and book of the month we have prepared for you. You can also give us suggestions, books, movies, concerts, plays, etc. that you want the Istinye Family to read, watch, see. You can share your information with us.

While commemorating all our martyrs and veterans, especially Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, who always believed and trusted the youth, with respect and gratitude, I congratulate our 19th of May Commemoration of Atatürk, Youth and Sports Day with my sincere wishes.

Kind regards,

Bahar Biçen Aras
Library Director

AUTHOR OF THE MONTH

Honoré de Balzac

He was born on 20 May 1799 in Tours. He wrote historical, humorous and gothic novels to earn money. He had toured all the provinces of France. Objectivity is undoubtedly the characteristic of the genius writer Balzac, who, besides his extraordinary and ruthless observation, his ruthless memory, possesses an overflowing, creative and intense imagination of infinite richness. Balzac's most important work was his 1841 book The Human Comedy, in which several novels and short stories were collected. The novels Eugenie Grandet and Lily of the Valley were also included in this series. The novels in the Human Comedy were interconnected in terms of history and character. This unique technique added value to the realism of Balzac, the pioneer of realist literature. The great writer Balzac, who lived with literature until the end of his life and is considered the Shakespeare of the novel genre, died in Paris on August 18, 1850. Honoré de Balzac, who made the greatest contributions to literature in novelism and especially realism, influenced many great names in the literary world. Among these big names are Émile Zola, Charles Dickens, Edgar Allan Poe, Fyodor Dostoyevsky, Gustave Flaubert.
