Dear Istinye University Family,

We are happy to share the fourth issue of the Library Bulletin with you. We have come to the last days of the busy 2021-2022 academic year. We supported our students by opening the library at the weekend during the final semester. While it is time to rest for our students who are preparing for the final exams at a high pace, it is time to feel proud of graduation for our 4th and 6th grade students. We congratulate all our graduates whole heartedly and want to state that we are always with them.

After Topkapı Library, we also made arrangements at the Vadi Library. We think you will like the new layout of the Vadi Library. We wanted to inform you about our two events that we were happy to host in June. At Istinye University, which values cooperation and transfer of experience, we will continue to host our colleagues from different institutions and valuable experts in their fields with the support of our university in the next academic term.

As a library, we attach importance to lifelong learning in order to provide quality service. We wanted to inform you about the trainings we attended and the visits we made from time to time.

We hope that you will enjoy the section on the author and book of the month and Suggestions from the Librarian, which we have prepared for you in this issue of the bulletin.

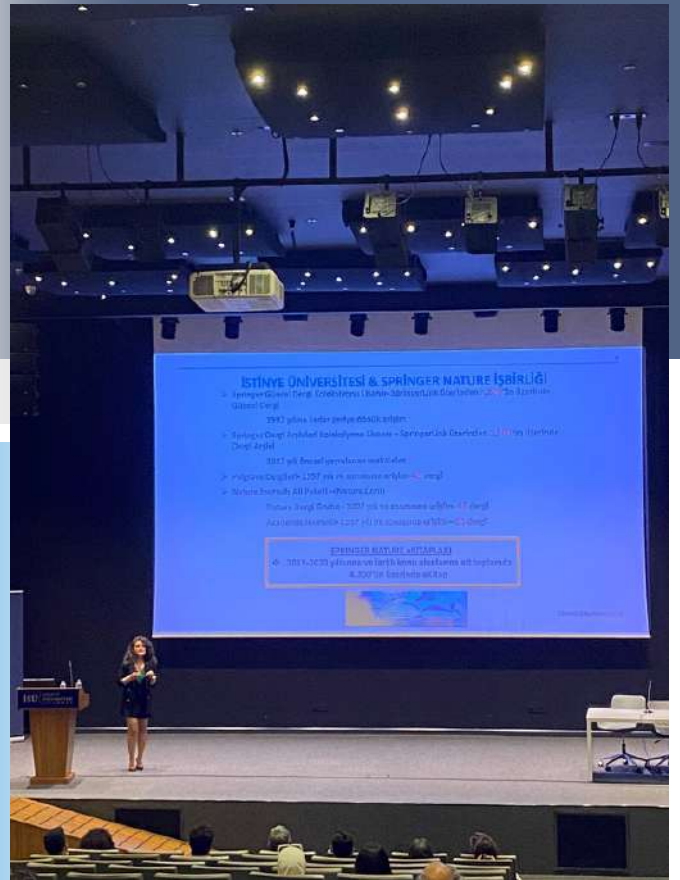

As ISU Library, we wish everyone a holiday full of health, peace and hope due to the Sacrifice Feast that we will celebrate in July.

I wish that the summer term, which will be very busy due to the preparations for the next academic year for the ISU Library, will be full of beauty for the entire Istinye Family.

Kind regards,

Bahar Biçen Aras
Library Director

AUTHOR OF THE MONTH

Muazzez İlmiye Çığ

Muazzez İlmiye Çığ, who was born on June 20, 1914 in Bursa, is a Sumerologist, scientist and historian. After enrolling in the Hittitology Department of AU Faculty of Language, History and Geography she took Sumerian and Akkadian languages lessons from Benno Landsberger. After graduating from Ankara University in 1940, she was appointed to the Istanbul Ancient Orient Artifacts Museum as a Documents Archive specialist and worked at the museum for 31 years. During this time, together with her friends, she cleaned tens of thousands of tablets written in Sumerian, Akkadian and Hittite languages, divided them into classes and numbered them.

Muazzez İlmiye Çığ, who has worked in many domestic and international events in her field, retired in the field of Archeology in 1972, but after her retirement, she started to live abroad and started to work abroad. As a result of her researches and studies with Kramer, she collected the missing information by bringing new subjects to the Sumerian Literature.

In 2000, due to her work, Istanbul University awarded her an Honorary Doctorate. According to Muazzez İlmiye Çığ, the 3 most important things in life are love, friendship and self-confidence.

Our Book Recommendation

“Nature, Gardens, Dreams” exhibition in Elgiz Museum; It offers the opportunity to recall the relationship between art, nature, garden and people through works compiled from the Arkas Collection. The exhibition, which brings together the unique perspectives of important artists from Turkey and abroad, selected from different fields of art such as painting, sculpture, decorative arts and textile art, reveals the change in artistic production from the 16th century to the 20th century.

The garden, which is a part of nature designed as a fictional living space by human beings and is a natural art, appears in the exhibition in bohemian or structured forms, sometimes depicted as the host of the world of myths, sometimes as a place of pleasure, sometimes as an agricultural area. Bringing together the works produced in the periods when nature was not yet subjected to human destruction, the exhibition also aims to remind people that humans are a part of nature and can only exist with nature. You can visit the exhibition, which is free of charge, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday between 10:00 and 17:00.
