Dear Members of the Istinye Family,

We are happy to share the 13th issue of the Library Bulletin with you. March 2023 was extremely busy for the library. Topkapı Library has moved to its new building, which you previously knew as the Student Center. Thus, we have an independent library building on the Topkapı Campus. It has been opened to your use with its 24/7 silent study area, group study rooms, computer area and research hall. If you want to do research on the printed resources of Vocational Schools and Faculty of Health Sciences, you can do your studies in Topkapı Library.

In the last days of March, we celebrated the 59th Library week with the theme of "The Achievements of the Republic and Librarianship" and as ISU Library, we took our place in the most valuable events held in Istanbul.

With the principle of #Lifelonglearning, we continued user trainings in line with your requests in March as well. You can continue to use the training request form for the trainings you want to receive in the coming days.

We would like to invite you to support the Book and Toy Donation Campaign organized in cooperation with the Turkish Librarians Association and Istanbul Metropolitan Municipality Libraries. Let's not forget #SolidarityLives. You can find details about the campaign later in the newsletter.

In the 13th issue of the ISU Library Bulletin, we have included many topics that we believe will be of interest to you. I hope you enjoy reading our news, the librarian's recommendations, and more.

With the opening of the Turkish Grand National Assembly on April 23, 1920, it was declared that the sovereignty belongs to the nation unconditionally. We are proud to celebrate 23 April National Sovereignty and Children's Day with the 103rd anniversary of the opening of the Grand National Assembly of Turkey, which was established with the determination of the will of the nation under the leadership of Gazi Mustafa Kemal Atatürk. On this occasion, I commemorate with respect, gratitude and, especially the great leader Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, and all our martyrs who sacrificed their lives for the country and their brothers in arms.

I wish everyone good health and good days.

Regards,

Bahar Biçen Aras

A SHORT HISTORY OF DECAY

"Where did you spend your life? The memory of a movement, the mark of a passion, the glimmer of an adventure, a beautiful and fugitive frenzy - none of that in your past; no delirium bears your name, no vice honors you. You slipped away without a trace; what was your dream?"

"Man starts over again everyday, in spite of all he knows, against all he knows."

ILLUMINATING THE FUTURE

The Reconstruction of Higher Education in the Early Years of the Republic, 1923–1946

Koç University presents a new exhibition that examines early reforms in higher education at the centenary anniversary of the Republic. "Illuminating the Future: The Reconstruction of Higher Education in the Early Years of the Republic, 1923–1946 " focuses on a critical period that shaped the future of Turkey and brings together important documents and visual material from different archives, primarily from the Koç University Suna Kıraç Library. The content of the exhibition was prepared by the Koç University's Suna Kıraç Library team, while the exhibition texts were written by the historian Burak Başaranlar.

The exhibition revolves around educational infrastructure, which was in need of development, and the social enterprises of a war-weary Republic. It also addresses achievements in education in the light of the women's movement, while touching on issues such as equal opportunity, secularism, and democratization in academic institutions, just as it highlights important fields such as law, arts, agricultural studies, and humanities.

The exhibition focuses on institutions of higher education primarily, which were reorganized in the early Republican era and established during that time period and still exist in Ankara today, which were critical in shaping the future of higher education in Turkey.
